Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good" and Doctor Pierce's medicine will exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood ailments, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly faded into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, perhaps, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't need a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booster," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equalled.

MRS. GUNNESS'S VICTIMS.

Autopsies on the seven unidentified bodies exhumed from Mrs. Belle Gunness' private burial ground at Lorton, Ind., were completed yesterday. They revealed that one of the seven was a woman.

This revelation aroused new interest in the story that a teacher and his wife came to the house one night in 1904 to take Jennie Olsen, Mrs. Gunness' foster daughter, to a Los Angeles college, as Mrs. Gunness told those about the place. The next morning Jennie and the man and woman were gone. Mrs. Gunness said they had left on an early train for California. The body now declared to be that of a woman was taken from the same hole as that of Jennie Olsen. In that hole also were the bodies of Ole Budeberg, of Iowa, Wis., and of another man.

The theory now advanced is that Mrs. Gunness may have, on the same night, murdered Jennie Olsen and the man and woman who had come to take her to California, and buried all three bodies, dismembered, in one pit. The body of Budeberg, who was murdered later in this night, was found near the surface than the other three.

The mystery surrounding the watch found on Ray Lamphere when he was arrested and cleared yesterday when J. G. Ramden, of Manassas, N. Dak., who came Sunday to investigate the disappearance of his half brother, John Moe, at Elbow Lake, Minn., identified the time-piece as the one carried by Moe when he left home. Lamphere said Mrs. Gunness gave him the watch.

Prosecutor Smith yesterday received a letter from Brooklyn, N. Y., threatening him with death unless he resigns his office and drops the Gunness investigation. He also received a threatening letter from Washington, D. C. Chief of Police Cochran has received a letter from New York, saying his life will pay for it unless he ceases his activity.

Another probable victim of Mrs. Gunness came to light yesterday when investigation was started for Abraham Phillips, of Ballington, Va., who left there in February 1907, to go to Lorton to marry "a rich widow," name unknown. He left his farm and property in West Virginia, but took a large sum of money with him. He has not been seen since. His relatives believe the "rich widow" was Mrs. Gunness.

ROOSEVELT-GOMPERS ALLIANCE.

If the attitude of the National Association of Manufacturers toward the Roosevelt-Gompers alliance is reflected in a statement given out last night by John Kirby, Jr., one of the association's directors, there will be some warm proceedings before the adjournment of the annual convention, which went into session in New York yesterday.

Mr. Kirby is the head of the Dayton Manufacturing Company, of Dayton, Ohio, which turns out railroad supplies. He is a republican, and a Tattler, but that has not prevented him from saying some very bitter things.

In his interview, Mr. Kirby characterized President Roosevelt as a czar who, in the game of politics, plays both ends against the middle. As Mr. Kirby sees it, the American Federation of Labor is no better than the "forty thieves," and the evils of guerrilla unionism and militant socialism, if unchecked, will lead but to a scarlet empire.

Continuing Mr. Kirby asked:

"But what has the record of organized labor to offer that entitles it to more consideration than would be given to the old band of forty thieves? To compromise or arbitrate with such people is nothing more or less than compounding a felony."

"With a presidential election in sight and the politicians scheming to catch voters, we are face to face with the lamentable spectacle of the president grasping Gompers with one hand, and with the other wielding a club over Congress, while both he and Gompers in one breath demand the passage of laws which shall give to organized labor immunity from laws by which it can now be restrained from acts of violence."

"It is faint but forlorn hope of gaining a little strength politically, the 93 per cent of unorganized labor is to be coerced or forced to become Gompersized and our old-time rights and privileges which have made this country a haven of opportunity are to be doomed to oblivion, if we will so permit, in order to get the ambition of a czar who believes the patriotic citizens of this country are so infatuated with him and his policies that they will tolerate anything and everything which he proposes or demands."

THE REASON.

When Secretary Root was at Panama on his return from South America, a New York Tribune man asked him how long he thought the American occupation of Cuba would last and get the following story in reply:

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup does not constipate, but on the other hand its laxative principles gently move the bowels. Children like it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.
